Appointments by the President—Pardon of a Criminal—Sudden Death of an Artist—Trial of Mary Harris, Etc.

Washington, July 15.—The President has reappointed Henry W. Hoffman, Collector of Customs; John F. McKillop, Surveyor, and Francis Corran, Naval Officer at Baltimore; also Henry E. Beckwith, Surveyor at Hartford, Connecticut; Henry Slover, Surveyor, and George J. Colby, Naval Officer at Newburyport, Massachusetts; Lawrence Weldon, Attorney, and David Phillips, Marshal for the Southern District of Illinois. Wm. Clendenin, Consul at St. Petersburg.

The President, on the unanimous recommendation of the Court which tried Edward Wilmer, Captain, and Provost Marshal for Delaware, has remitted the execution portion of sentence against him.

Mr. Crane, artist for HARRIS'S WEEKLY, was found dead in his bed at the National Hotel this morning. He retired in usual health last night.

Washington, July 16.—Reports received here show that there are occasional seizures and confiscations of goods smuggled into the United States from the British Provinces. The efficient measures adopted by the Commissioner of Customs, Judge Sargent, have prevented to a considerable extent such violations of the law.

It has been ascertained on enquiry that the legal limit of three hundred millions of National Bank circulation is nearly reached, and therefore the creation of but comparatively few additional institutions under that system will be authorized. The entire number will probably reach sixteen hundred.

Information received here from prominent citizens of the Southern States, gives assurance that the work of restoration is progressing much more smoothly than was anticipated, and that the unfriendly utterances of some of the editors are not indicative of the pacific spirit of the people.

The Miss Harris Murder Trial.

In this case, at Washington, on Friday, Rev. J. C. Burroughs, brother of the murdered man, continued his testimony.

Witness did not use the form, when solemnizing the marriage of his brother, of asking if there was any impediment by reason of previous marriage. The deceased's wife made her first visit to her friends after marriage in the month of September following, and remained there three weeks. The deceased did not inform witness of any embarrassment he felt in regard to his relations with Miss Harris. At the time of his visit to Chicago, witness had a conversation with the deceased in relation to Miss Harris, but previous to that time, witness never saw her. He never saw her since she was married to his brother. He never saw her since she was married to his brother. He never saw her since she was married to his brother.

By Mr. Carrington—Witness's motives in taking the interest he had in the case was not in case his brother's reputation and character were more or less involved, and under the request of his widow for the sake of herself and child, he found not otherwise but feel an interest, that so far as they affected his reputation, those things should be cleared up. Deceased witness's brother, and witness thinks he may have said that he would like to have it.

Card from Weichman, Witness in the Conspiracy Trials.

Philadelphia, July 16.—Weichman, the principal witness for the Government in the Conspiracy cases, publishes a card in the SUNDAY DISPATCH, stating that the statement of Breph, implicating his character and testimony is a tissue of lies from beginning to end; that the said statement was twice submitted to Judge Holt, and once to President Johnson and all the members of the Court, before the execution, without effect; that it was only at Breph's own request that he was not called to the stand to testify to Weichman's good conduct. The card also details some conversation of Mrs. Sarratt, which did not appear before the Court, showing her knowledge of the conspiracy. He says Breph is an alien, untrustworthy, and has never taken the oath of allegiance to the Government he attempts to assail in the person of its chief witness.
